

How to help youth receive their Lutheran Award

Ideas, hints, and techniques that can help more youth earn an award

- Have a booth at Scout Expos to reach youth
- Have a booth at University of Scouting or Pow Wows to reach leaders
- Get some space on the council web site that discusses the awards
- Get information into newsletters that go to youth
- Get information into LCMS District/ELCA Synod newsletters to reach churches
- Have a booth at a ELCA Synod/LCMS District meeting to reach adults
- Put information into church bulletins, especially Scout Sundays
- Send a letter to pastors in your area telling them of the program and encouraging them to use award programs and offering your assistance
- Encourage churches to set classes for any who would like to receive the award.

Can be led by Pastor or youth workers or adult members.
